

Caitlin Orsak Wins State Title of Miss Texas Czech-Slovak US 2012

On Saturday, April 28, 2012, the Czech Heritage Society of Texas held their 10th annual Miss Texas Czech-Slovak Queen Pageant at the West KC Hall in West, Texas. Three young ladies competed for the title of Miss Texas Czech Slovak Queen 2012. The competition consisted of personal interviews with three judges, an on-stage interview and question related to their desires to celebrate and preserve their heritage, kroj modeling and a talent competition.

Caitlin Orsak, from Shiner, Texas, will now go on to compete for the title of Miss Czech Slovak USA in Wilber, Nebraska in August 2012. The winner of this competition receives numerous prizes, including a free trip to the Czech Republic. Congratulations to Caitlin Orsak who are shining examples of Texas Czech heritage.